Double Strand Pear Choker

A close-up, profile view of a woman with dark hair pulled back, looking upwards. She is wearing a black, sleeveless dress with a draped neckline. Her eyes are closed, and she has light-colored eye makeup. She is wearing a large, star-shaped diamond earring and a diamond ring on her finger. Her hand is resting on her shoulder.

Where each piece carries the echo of a star.
Sculptural silhouettes and fluid lines evoke clarity and the grace of something destined.

For the woman who moves as if the universe wrote her glow.
